_____ I understand that by becoming a GH volunteer, I am approved to use the GH logo and provided marketing materials to promote GH during the Halloween season. Using the Green Halloween®, Celebrate Green!® or EcoMom Alliance® or logos in ways other than to promote GH (or without permission to do so) is not allowed.

_____ The registered (®) sign must be used when using the names Green Halloween®, The Green Year®, and/or Celebrate Green!® in print, online, in press releases, etc. Think Outside the Candy Box® and Hallogreen® are also registered trademarks and must be deemed as such. In addition, I agree to request that others (e.g. media) who are using the name do the same.

_____ www.GreenHalloween.org and logo will be featured prominently on all print materials and virtual communications including blogs and websites. My event will be promoted as part of the national network of Green Halloween® events. Top level national sponsors and sponsors supporting my event with product will be given visibility as per Corey's requirements (TBD). If I have or start at Facebook page or Twitter account for my GH event, Corey Colwell-Lipson and Lynn Colwell must be made additional administrators of the page and may not be removed.

_____ As a GH volunteer, I will be responsible for duties including but not limited to:

_____ I understand that GH is a family-friendly initiative and that all events, activities, associations, print material content, etc. must be appropriate for children as young as two unless pre-approved.

_____ I understand that Corey and her team are here to help. I won't hesitate to contact them with concerns. I understand that I will be volunteering in a fast-paced environment, and that regular meetings with Corey will likely not be scheduled. If I have a problem, question, concern, etc. I will notify Corey immediately. I agree to complete work in a timely fashion; if a project is delayed, I will also let Corey know right away.

_____ I agree that GH, The Green Year®, LLC (AKA Celebrate Green!®) and EcoMom Alliance® are not responsible for harm or damage that should happen to me or my property whether or not I'm involved in a GH activity at the time.

_____ I understand that GH is staffed by volunteers. I agree to have fun, and to stay positive, and to represent Green Halloween and EcoMom Alliance in a professional and family-friendly way.
